

Table of Contents

I	What is this?.....	1
	Knowing whether you have a discrimination complaint
II	What does this mean?.....	5
	Understanding definitions of common terms
III	Where the rubber meets the road.....	11
	Deciding whether you have jurisdiction to investigate
IV	The dead end.....	15
	Notifying the parties that you don't have jurisdiction to investigate
V	Your roadmap.....	19
	Developing the Complaint Investigation Plan (CIP)
VI	Avoiding the "smoke and mirrors" show.....	29
	Knowing how to properly frame the issue of an investigation
VII	A "shout out" to the parties.....	33
	Notifying the parties that you have accepted the complaint
VIII	Shifting into gear.....	37
	Selecting interrogatories to send to the parties
IX	The line-up.....	61
	Understanding the parties' burdens
X	Meeting of the minds.....	65
	Using mediation in resolving discrimination complaints
XI	Following up.....	69
	Interviewing witnesses
XII	What's really going on?.....	75
	Analyzing the evidence
XIII	Nailing it!.....	79
	Writing your notice of final action
XIV	Race.....	83
XV	Color.....	85

XVI	National origin.....	87
XVII	Sex and gender.....	89
XVIII	Sexual harassment.....	91
XIX	Religion.....	109
XX	Disability.....	123
XXI	WIA participant status.....	143
XXII	Age.....	145
XXIII	Citizenship.....	147
XXIV	Political affiliation or belief.....	149
XXV	Retaliation or reprisal.....	157